247	2	247	5	HESI	Leading; foundation: The witness is being improperly led on direct examination. Further, there is no foundation for this witness to answer the question asked.

247	17	247	23	HESI	Vague and ambiguous; compound: Counsel asked, "Do you recall ever receiving information from the mudloggers or around any mud log before you left the rig on April 15th, 2010, about any hydrocarbons being present around the area of 17,467 feet?" This question is vague and ambiguous; it is not clear and precise enough for the witness to know what is being asked. Further, it is a compound question and, thus, is confusing as to which part of the question was answered.
