

Well Unloading Sequence Calculated For "Piston-Like" Displacement (No Mixing At Interfaces Between Different Fluids)

Note: 1. All density labels reference values measured at the surface. Adjustments were made for effect of downhole temperature and pressure variations with depth.
2. Bottom-hole pressure calculated when closing BOP is lower than actual because of large effect of mixing at seawater/spacer interface at that time.

