

Key Findings

The DWH Disaster Caused Serious and Widespread Sociocultural Harm

- Disrupted livelihoods and patterns of daily living
- Exacerbated social and economic inequality
- Challenged individual and collective identity
- Fostered conflict and divisiveness
- Disempowered local governments and NGOs

BP's Criticisms Trivialize the Harm to the Gulf Communities