

DR. TUNNELL'S PRESENTATION OF DATA DILUTES HARM TO BIRDS

- Data used were largely collected from a limited number of land based stations
- Most of the data included in analysis of harm to birds came from regions with light to very light oiling, or no oil observed
- Only catastrophic impacts would be detected

