

Fred Quivik, Ph.D.: Background

- Professor of History, Dept. of Social Sciences and Graduate Program in Industrial Archaeology, Michigan Technological University
- Consulting Historian of Technology/Principal in the Firm of Quivik Consulting Historian, Inc.
- Ph.D. History and Sociology of Science, U. of Penn. (1998)
- Qualified and testified as an expert in environmental cases, including those regarding parent-subsidiary relationships:
 - U.S. v. Asarco (Bunker Hill Superfund case in Idaho)
 - U.S. v. Newmont Mining Corp., et al (Midnite mine case in WA)
 - U.S. v. Sterling Centrecorp (Lava Cap Superfund case in CA)
 - U.S. v. Marmon Holdings (Golconda Superfund case in Idaho)