
Captain Paskewich: Oil Spill Response Expert

CAPT Frank Paskewich
Oil Spill Response Expert

Education

- B.S., Naval Architecture & Marine Engineering, United States Coast Guard Academy, 1981
- M.S., Naval Architecture, Marine Engineering & Mechanical Engineering, University of Michigan, 1989
- Licensed Professional Engineer (MI)

Professional Experience

- Retired Captain in the United States Coast Guard with 33 years of experience in marine safety and oil spill response
- Responded to hundreds of spills in the Gulf of Mexico, including as Federal On Scene Coordinator during Hurricane Katrina Response
- Acting Captain of the Port for New Orleans during 9/11 Response
- President, Clean Gulf Associates, Inc., New Orleans-based oil spill response organization

Recognitions

- Legion of Merit, United States Coast Guard
- C. Alvin Bertel Award, for Hurricane Katrina response leadership