

---

CDC and State Health Surveillance

---

- CONCLUSION: State/federal monitoring did not detect any increase in health conditions related to DWH
  - CDC/Gulf State surveillance “reveals no trends of public health concern related to the oil spill”
  - LDHH surveillance showed no increase in asthma and upper respiratory symptoms in N.O. hospitals
  - MSDH showed no increase in respiratory, rash, GI, or neurologic syndromes during DWH