

Necropsy - 5-6-11

671MMS031911

Shark bite: 24 cm x 27 cm
Fishing line around rostrum
(Thin)

Vertebrae

~~pec~~ ^{pec} right ~~fluke~~ - missing digit 1, digit 2 - loss of cranial aspect right Flipper

Right Eye missing
Skin aspect Right Fluke

Circular on dorsal aspect Fluke puncture wound - ven. aspect R. fluke

Shark Bite - Upper Thoracic - 2cm with * 24cm x 27.2 cm cranial to dorsal Fin

4 dorsal processes Broken / Bitten off.

Left - muscle missing +
Skin + Blubber missing

This animal has almost no Blubber.

No Blubber - 2mm in front of scapula - abdominal wall opening in umbilical area -

Teeth - Upper Left - no. 16 has ^{barriole} attached to it - 24 ^{teeth on} upper Left -

#7 Lower Left - has barriole attached.

23 ^{teeth on} lower left

Right side teeth - on other page - 2nd page -

Lung smaller than as should be.
that rock

07HMNS031911

✓ liver is smaller than normal -
✓ diaphragm - Left medial ~~diaphragm~~ ^{diaphragm} large. thin fibrous area.

✓ pericardial sac - fluid.

✓ Stomach - empty.

✓ ^{entire} stomach collected for evaluation later.

✓ right diaphragm normal.

✓ small amount of Bladder - no stones seen.

✓ NO parasites in liver.

✓ greenish-red - liver -

✓ No parasites or stones in kidney.

✓ Bronchial lymph node very small.

✓ pebbles in esophagus - aorta heart -

✓ Left eye - ruptured.

✓ ductus arteriosus closed.

Lungs appear smaller than normal.

26 teeth - upper right.

24 + 25 are missing on upper right.

#20 ^{teeth on} Lower right

21, 22, 23 missing.

#5 L.R. displaced caudally -

#6 L.R. displaced cranially

upper right #9 displaced caudally.

upper right #10 displaced cranially

Upper Left #10 & displaced medially -

#10 displaced laterally.