Got it, I'll visit with Jon regardless as I do on a regular basis. Have a nice peaceful time off. I give you my word I will consult the team and make well thought out decisions.

Will you be my valentine?

John,

Reminders for this weekend and next week.

Dave Rich wants an ops update twice a day. I'd say at least through Monday morning. After that, you can ask him what he wants. Dave wants Jon in the loop so if you make any significant changes to the plan, please make sure you get Jon's concurrence - Dave will ask. Also, for any dispensations.

I always forget this one - Rich needs an Operations Update email for the past week by 0700 on Thursday morning.

I hope everything goes well and you have a smooth, quiet week. Everyone will breathe easier when we get that plug set.

David
