
The Three-Ram Capping Stack

- Optimized for containment and collection of oil
 - Sealed system, multiple off-take points to conduct oil to vessels or to subsea infrastructure
- Multiple pressure monitors for Well Integrity Test
- Venting system designed for shut-down of production or rig departure
- Subsea choke to permit controlled shut-in
- A drilling BOP had none of those features