

Dr. Charles Mason Educational and Work Experience

- 👁 Bachelor's Degrees in Mathematics and Economics with honors, University of California, Berkeley
- 👁 PhD in Economics, University of California, Berkeley
- 👁 Professor of Economics, University of Wyoming
  - H. A. True Chair in Petroleum and Natural Gas Economics
- 👁 More than 60 Publications in Peer-Reviewed Journals
  - Mason, Charles F., “The Organization of the Oil Industry, Past and Present,” Foundations and Trends in Microeconomics 2014, v. 10, pp. 1 – 83.
  - Mason, Charles F., Jason Shogren, Chad Settle and John List, “Environmental Catastrophes and Non-Expected Utility Maximization: An Experimental Evaluation,” Journal of Risk and Uncertainty, September 2005 v. 31(2), pp. 187-215.
- 👁 Relevant Courses Taught
  - Oil and Gas Economics
  - Industrial Organization
  - Econometrics
- 👁 Journal Editing
  - Managing Editor of Journal of Environmental Economics and Management (2006 – 2011)
  - Joint Editor-in-Chief Strategic Behavior and the Environment (ongoing)
- 👁 Consulting