
Dr. John W. Tunnell, Jr.

- Associate Director & Endowed Chair Biodiversity and Conservation Science, Harte Research Institute
- Professor (retired), Texas A&M-Corpus Christi
- M.S. (biology), Texas A&M - Kingsville; Ph.D. (biology), Texas A&M
- Nearly 50 years experience researching, teaching and publishing about Gulf of Mexico ecosystems; editor of two GoM book series
- Fulbright Scholar, 1985; Regents Professor, 1998
- National Spill Control School, founded 1975
- 40 years studying the effects from oil spills in marine environments, including IXTOC & Exxon Pipeline